Arrival in Hong Kong

If it is your first time to fly to Hong Kong, it should be useful to check the website of the Hong Kong International Airport at <http://www.hkairport.com>.

From the Airport to Hong Kong Baptist University (HKBU) / NTT International House

There are 3 choices to come to HKBU from the Airport:

- (1) The Airport Express takes 20 minutes to travel from the airport to Kowloon Station, where you can take a taxi to HKBU. The fare is HK$90 for single journey and HK$160 for round trip (valid for one month). It costs around HK$60 and takes about 30 minutes for a taxi ride from Kowloon Station to HKBU. If you want to know more about how it operates, please visit the Airport Express Website: http://www.mtr.com.hk/eng/train/ae_ticket.htm
- (2) A Taxi ride directly from the airport to HKBU costs approximately HK$300-350, including the Tsing Ma Bridge toll. Taxi will have to charge you HK$5 for each luggage.

Taxi stands are located on the north side of the Ground Transportation Centre (the left-hand ramp if you are leaving from the Arrivals Hall). You should take Urban taxi (red) to HKBU campus.

- (3) If you have light luggage (maximum size is 71cm x 50cm x 26cm), you may take airport bus E22. The fare is HK$18 per trip and it takes around 1.5 hours to get to the university. You should get off at Junction Road. NTT International House is just 3 minutes' walk from the bus stop.

For those of you taking the Airport Express or the airport bus, you are highly recommended to buy an Octopus card at the Airport Express Customer Service Centre for a minimum value of HK$150. This card can be used for travelling on the Airport Express, subway (MTR), various buses and minibuses in Hong Kong, but not taxi.
